table, but are unable to provide for all of our food, transportation to, and lodging in many towns. Without a vehicle, we must always pay for transportation. The rate of inflation in Colombia is significantly higher than in many Latin countries.

Any support that you can give should be directed to the Marshfield Church of Christ, P O Box 458, Marshfield, MO 68706, earmarked for Nacho's May Mission. As always, we desire your prayers for our success in this mission, so that many souls will be saved and edified. Pray also for our safe return. I know that you will. With our deepest gratitude,

Your Brother In Christ,

Eliezer (Nacho) Bram

An Open Door in Columbia

By Nacho Bram

February 22, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A door has been opened for us in Colombia, to teach and preach to those struggling against Catholicism and an environment where sin is allowed to flourish and righteousness is discouraged. Once again, we are, asking for your support for a campaign in Colombia.

I have again been asked by Stephen Rook to be his translator there. It is an honor and a privilege for me to do this.

My wife, Beverly has been asked to present Ladies' Day lectures in several congregations. This will be her third visit to do this, but she will be mainly in new congregations, as well as visiting established ones. The topics which have been requested are: A Christian woman's Role in the Lord's Church and in the Home. Previous topics have been: why Christians should be Happy; and why Christian women should be in the world but not of the world; and walking in the Light.

We are familiar with many of the brethren there, and always receive a warm welcome. Our trip is scheduled for May. As you can imagine, such trips are very expensive. Tickets alone are approximately $1,000.00. The locals are very hospi-
