

turn, blamed the serpent for their wrong doing.

Many in the church today have the “it’s not my fault” mentality. They either make excuse or blame someone else for their own sins or shortcomings. Brethren, it is time to take an honest look at ourselves by the standard of God’s word (2 Corinthians 13:5), look at our sins for what they are, confess them, and ask God to forgive us (1 John 1:9). Only then can we truly be fruitful in the Lord’s kingdom (John 15:5,7,8; cf. Matthew 5:16; Philippians 1:11).

I Have to Go See My Dad

By Eddie Watkins

The last time I saw my dad was right before I moved here. He was a 6’ 3” 225 lb., strong and authoritative looking man for most of my life but when I saw him right before I moved he was frail and mom told me he had Parkinson’s. He couldn’t talk much above a whisper and everything he did was slow and deliberate. He was using a walker. Mom called me yesterday and told me it was time to come home. So, this afternoon I’m going to Texas to see my dad. No lesson here, I just want to tell you what I’m doing, where I’ll be. After services I’ll be going to the house and napping. I need a few more hours before getting in the truck and driving for 10-12 hours (depending on road construction along the interstate). So I’ll miss services tonight.

Pray for me. It’s going to be a difficult visit. Oh, and when I return I’ll have Jen and the girls with me.

It’s Not My Fault

By Mike Riley

Man is inclined, when he is wrong, to lay the blame on someone else. He is like the small boy who was standing on the cat’s tail. The mother, hearing the terrible outburst from the cat, called from the next room, “Tommy, stop pulling that cat’s tail!” Tommy yelled back, “I’m not pulling the cat’s tail. I’m standing on it. The cat is doing the pulling!”

Is this not what Adam and Eve did in the garden of Eden in Genesis 3:12-13? Adam blamed God for his sin because God gave him that woman, and blamed Eve for giving him the fruit. Eve, in
